SOLEA

LIVE WHERE LIGHT FINDS YOU

Welcome to a home where every ray of light tells a story. A sanctuary designed to let the sun dance through every space, filling your days with energy, warmth, and wonder.

At SOLEA BY TARAF, light isn't just an element; it's an experience. From sunrise to sunset, it illuminates your life, transforms your surroundings, and reveals beauty in every moment.

A detailed architectural rendering of a modern, multi-story residential or commercial building. The building features a mix of white concrete and large glass panels. Several balconies with glass railings are visible, some containing potted plants and outdoor furniture. The interior lights are on, and the warm glow of the setting sun is visible through the large glass openings and reflecting off the building's surfaces. The overall aesthetic is clean, minimalist, and sophisticated.

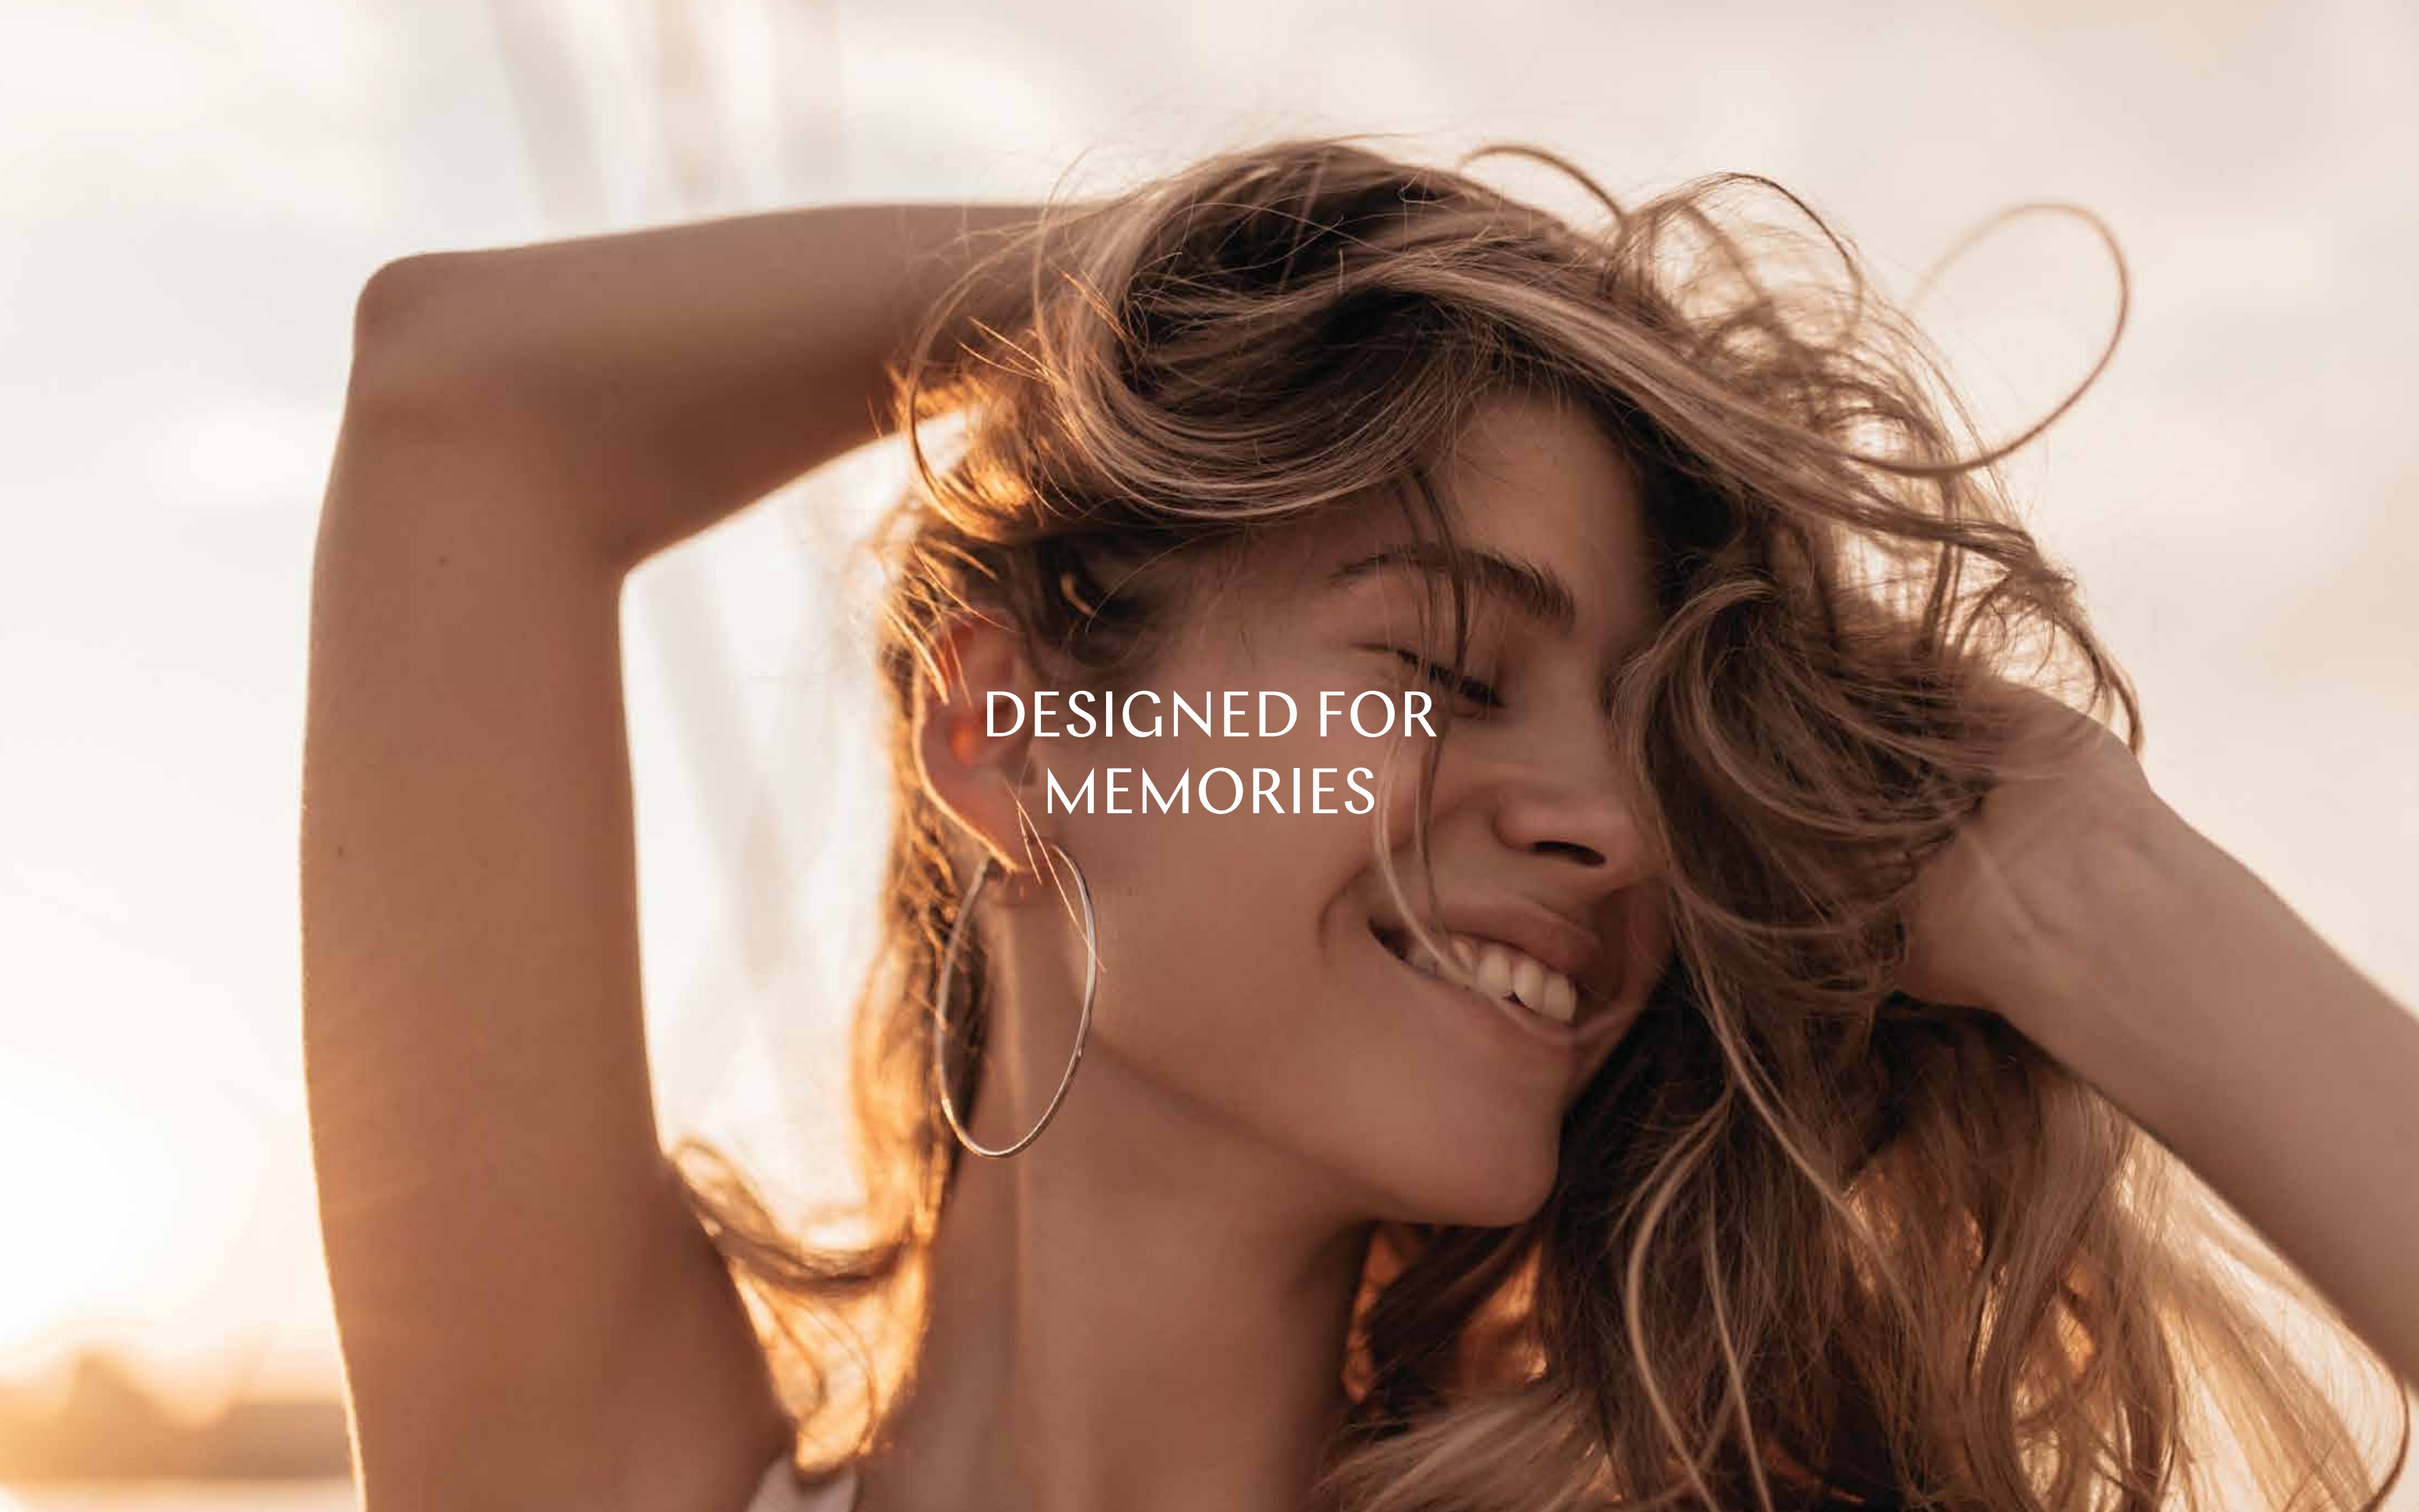

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN PHILOSOPHY

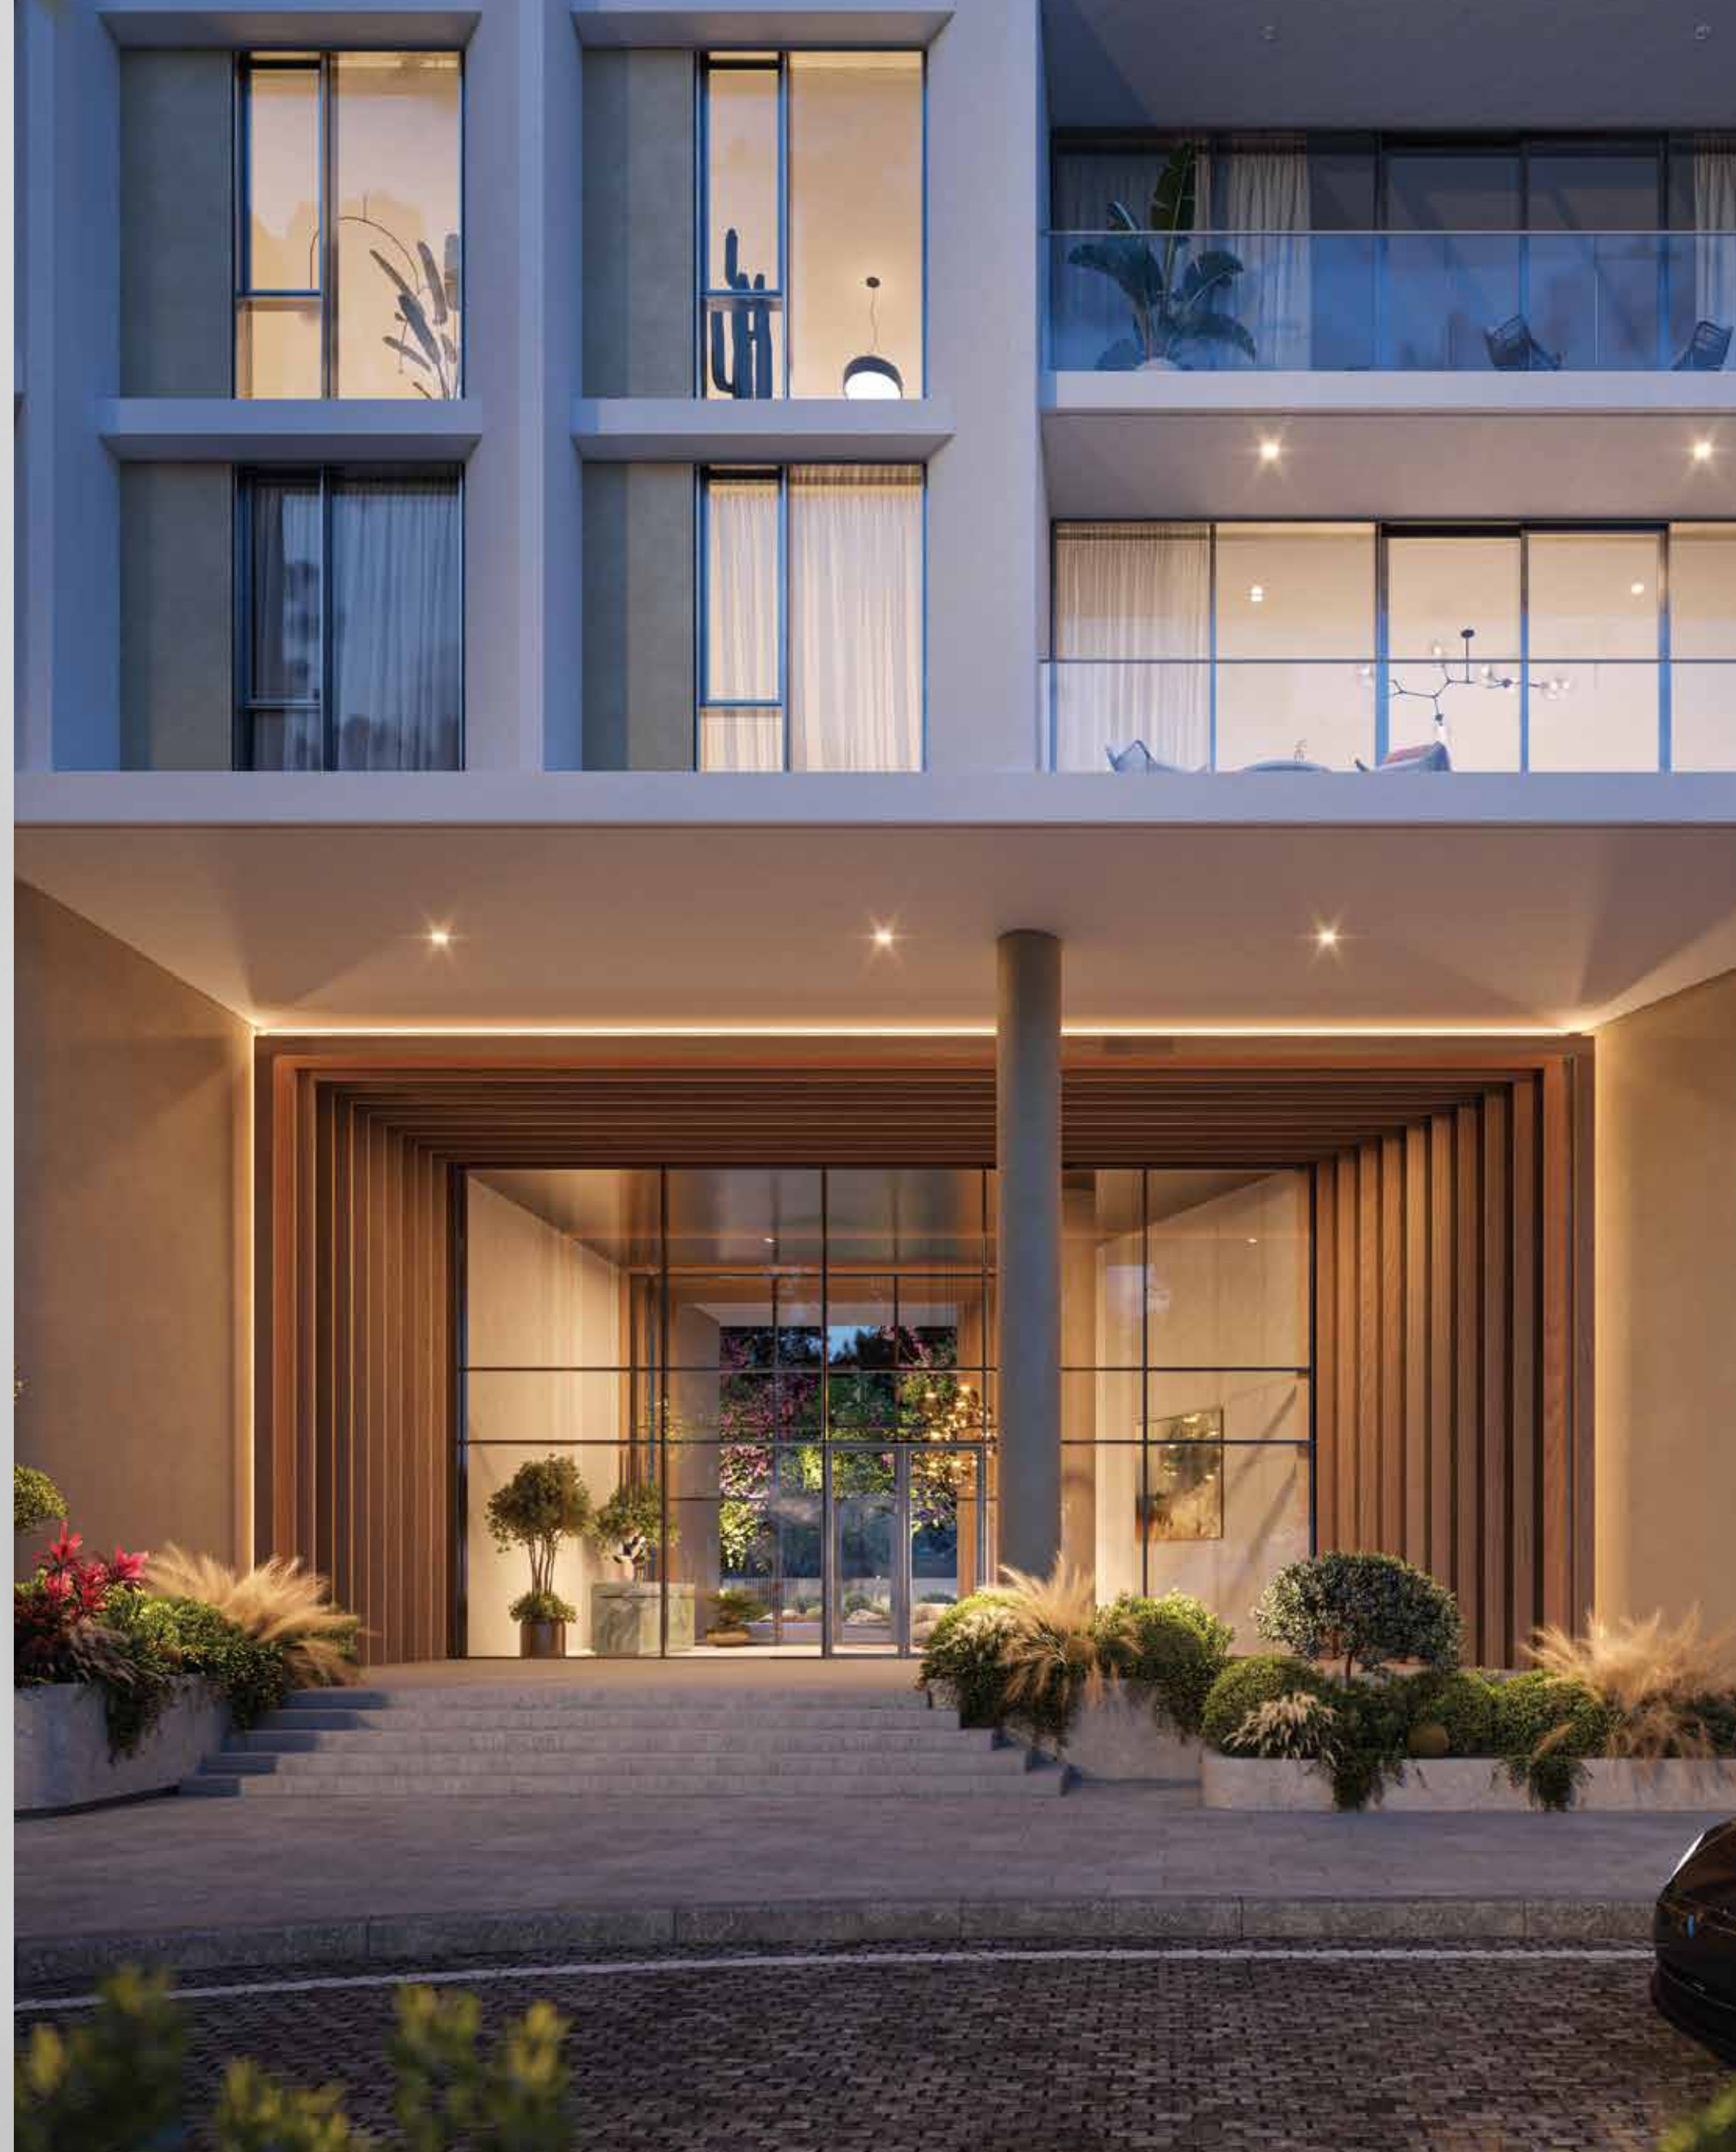

SOLEA follows a smart and efficient linear volumetric design, creating a perfect balance between functionality and beauty.

- Four interconnected buildings, arranged in a tongue-and-groove structure to maximize space and enhance architectural harmony.
- A focus on outdoor living, with landscaped gardens, pools, and shared community spaces at different levels that encourage social interaction and relaxation.
- A layout that ensures privacy, carefully positioning apartments to prevent direct views into neighboring homes while maintaining stunning, unobstructed views of the surrounding scenery.
